

Theatre Etiquette for Student Groups

Thank you for coming to Berkeley Rep!

We are excited that you'll be joining us for and we look forward to seeing you.

Student matinee information for teachers and chaperones*:

On the day of the performance, the doors will open for seating between 11:30 and 11:45am. A staff member will be waiting in front of the theatre to greet you, and the show will start promptly at noon. There will be an optional talk-back with one or more of the artists from the show after the performance.

Please keep the following in mind when you come to the theatre and go over these rules with your students:

- Please be on time. Latecomers will be seated ONLY at the discretion of house management.
- Remember that the performers are in the same room with you and are affected by what you do. You can help them do their best by watching and listening carefully.
- Cellular phones and pagers interrupt a performance. Please be sure that they are turned off. TEXT MESSAGING IS NOT ALLOWED DURING THE PERFORMANCE. House Management will confiscate any cellular phones that are used during the performance.
- CD players, radios, electronics, and skateboards are not permitted in the theatre. Please do not bring them with you to the performance.
- The use of a camera or any type of recording equipment is not allowed.
- Please eat before coming to the performance. Food and beverages are not allowed in the theatre. Audience members must refrain from eating or unwrapping candy during the performance as it may distract others.
- Please use the restroom before attending the performance.
- Any student causing a disruption will be sent to the lobby and must be accompanied by an adult.
- Enjoy the show!

**Please note that some of this may not apply to student groups attending regular performances.*
